

Rosa Parks

Rosa Parks became known as "the mother of the civil rights movement" after being arrested and fined for defying segregation on a city bus. Her actions inspired the Montgomery, Alabama bus boycott, led by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

